OPEN CALL FOR APPLICATIONS
Intensive Regional Training of Multipliers for Legal Clinics
– Workshop for Teaching Staff –

20 – 21 September 2018

Venue:

Belgrade (University of Belgrade Faculty of Law)

Together with the South East European Law School Network (SEELS) and its member faculties as well as the Law Faculty of the University in Banja Luka, the Europa-Institut of Saarland University is implementing a project Acces2Justice4All: Clinical legal education – Supporting the access to justice in SEE” which deals with the access to legal information and advice by strengthening the clinical legal education at law faculties in the Western Balkans and Germany. In this phase of the project we are announcing an open call for professors to attend Intensive Regional Training of Multipliers for Legal Clinics. On this training the professors will be trained on various issues concerning clinical legal education such as: organisational matters – which model of CLE suits their purpose the best, what they can expect from the faculty and from students, how to choose the right legal area, how to prepare an agenda, whom to invite, how to secure internal and external, how they can benefit from and collaborate with different partners, the role of public, practical matters – what is the legal aid and how it is defined in the law, who should be beneficiaries of the legal clinic, who can also provide legal, experiences from provision of legal aid to real clients, minimal standards of work, privacy protection etc., legal ethics, techniques of interviewing clients and how to approach vulnerable clients.

Moreover, the interested professors get in touch to each other and that can foster future collaboration.
