

MARS Leadership Experience Program

Your future as a leader starts today.

Apply for the 3-year General Management Graduate Trainee Program starting in September 2022

The Mars Leadership Experience (MLE) is a perfect grounding for a career in business leadership. You'll manage projects, take on roles with local and international exposure, lead teams, make decisions with real consequences and much more.

From Sales to Supply Chain Management, from Marketing to Project Management - we believe in your potential to learn fast, build strong relationships and drive our business forward.

Each placement is tailored to your personal development, you will gain an impressive level of experience to fast track your leadership career. Explore the world of opportunities at Mars.

Make today count, apply here.

What are we looking for?

- You hold a bachelor or master's degree
- You have ambition for a People Leadership Career
- Ability to learn and grow fast
- People and Organizational agility
- Proficiency in English
- You'll bring an out-the-box thinking to Mars

We will provide:

- A great line manager, a mentor and a buddy
- Support from an amazing graduate community
- On the job learning supported by workshops to develop all the skills you'll need to become one of our future leaders
- Opportunities to interact with Mars senior leaders
- Competitive salary and package

MARS
Tomorrow starts today

Apply until April 7th, 2022. by sending your CV in English and join us at our Mars office in Belgrade, Serbia.

