

VICTORIA FISHER MEMORIAL PRIZE 2022

WOMEN AND THE LAW

You are invited to write an essay of not more than 5000 words relating to the above topic. The winning entry will be awarded £250.

About the Prize: The purpose of the annual prize is to stimulate interest in the relationship between women and the law.

About Victoria Fisher: Victoria was a lecturer in the School of Law at the University of Leicester. She was a founder member of the Women and Law group and an active trade unionist.

Entries to be received by November 30 2022

To find out how to enter contact:

Mrs Linda Henfrey, Victoria Fisher Memorial Prize Fund
t: +44 (0) 116 252 2363 e: lawreception@le.ac.uk

www.le.ac.uk/law

