

Public International Law Study group in English language

The University of Belgrade Faculty of Law is pleased to invite third-year students to apply for attending a study group in Public International Law in English.

The course will be interactive and it will include an in-depth analysis of relevant International Law instruments and rules, with a special focus on the case-law of international courts and tribunals, in particular, the jurisprudence of the International Court of Justice.

During the entire course, interactive and practical teaching methods will be used, including debates, case studies, and simulations of dispute settlement before the International Court of Justice.

Students who wish to apply for the study group are required to possess advanced knowledge of English and a minimum average grade of 8/10. The maximum number of students that will be accepted to attend the study group is limited to 20.

Classes will be held during the spring semester, on Wednesdays from 13:30-15:10, in seminar room 425. The first class will be held on Wednesday, 22 February 2023.

The course will be held by Prof. Dr. Ivana Krstić and Prof. Dr. Bojana Čučković.

The deadline for submitting applications is Friday, 17 February 2023. Submission of applications is by e-mail only, at cuckovic@ius.bg.ac.rs. Applications should contain information regarding name and family name, index number, and average grade, with a CV attached.

