

Institut suisse de droit comparé
Schweizerisches Institut für Rechtsvergleichung
Istituto svizzero di diritto comparato
Swiss Institute of Comparative Law

VAN CALKER SCHOLARSHIP

Each year, the Swiss Institute of Comparative Law awards a certain number of van Calker scholarships with the aim of permitting Swiss and foreign researchers to pursue academic projects at the Institute in the field of comparative law, as well as in foreign and international law.

Candidates wishing to apply for the Van Calker scholarship must send their completed application with the following documents by 15th August of the previous year:

- a cover letter
- a curriculum vitae in Europass form
- a detailed research proposal
- a letter of recommendation

The documents can be in French, German, English or Italian.

We particularly encourage applications in the research areas of the Institute, whether it be private international law, international economic law or the methodology of comparative law.

The total amount of the scholarship is 1'500.- Swiss Francs (CHF) per month and the accommodation is organized and paid for by the Institute. The length of stay is between 2 and 4 months. Documents must be sent by e-mail to visite.isdc@unil.ch or by post to: Institut suisse de droit comparé, Bourses van Calker, Dorigny, CH-1015 Lausanne.