We cordially invite you to an Online webinar on the topic: “Challenges for ensuring the Rule of Law in the EU and candidate countries”, that will take place in online form via Webex platform on 30 September 2023, starting at 11:30 AM.

The speakers will be Associate Professor Maja Lukić Radović and Teaching Assistant and PhD candidate Marija Vlajković, both from the Department of International Law and International Relations at the University of Belgrade Faculty of Law.

This event is intended for students of the Master of International Law and the Master of European Integrations programs, doctoral students as well as for members of the academia and EU law experts and practitioners.

The aim of the webinar is to analyze the recent developments, and underline challenges for the current policy and legal framework of the European Union, with special emphasis on the Rule of Law principle, from perspectives of both the European Union, on the one side, and candidate countries, including the Republic of Serbia, on the other.

The working language of the webinar is English.

Looking forward to your participation in this event.

Kind regards,
Maja Lukić Radović
