

Telders International Law Moot Court Competition

Following the successful hosting of the UNICUM International Friendly Rounds for the 2026 Telders Moot Court Competition, the University of Belgrade Faculty of Law is pleased to invite fourth-year and master's students to apply for the Faculty's team for the 2027 Telders International Law Moot Court Competition.

The Telders International Law Moot Court Competition brings together university teams from across Europe to argue a fictitious dispute before the International Court of Justice. Teams prepare written memorials and present oral arguments on behalf of both the applicant and the respondent, developing their research, legal writing and advocacy skills in public international law. The international rounds of the 2027 Competition will take place in The Hague from 27 to 29 May 2027, with the final round traditionally held at the Peace Palace.

The deadline for submitting applications is 31 October 2026.

Applications should be sent to: cuckovic@ius.bg.ac.rs

Applications should include the candidate's first and last name, student index number and average grade, with a motivation letter and CV attached.

